Bankers Reach More Than 22,000 Youth During Financial Literacy Month

April is Financial Literacy Month. It also is Community Banking Month, sponsored by the Independent Community Bankers of America, and Teach Children to Save Month, sponsored by the American Bankers Association Education Foundation.

This past April, 60 member banks of the Indiana Bankers Association (IBA) offered financial literacy outreach to children, with 572 bankers making 934 presentations to 22,184 youth. Financial literacy activities include presentations to youth/community groups, Junior Achievement classes and bank tours for schools. April outreach represents only a portion of banks' year-long outreach programs.
